Apprenticeship Summary

Overview of the Role

Making sure that learning and development contributes to improved performance in the workplace.

Occupation Summary

Learning and Development Consultant Business Partner is accountable for ensuring learning and development contributes to, and influences, improved performance in the workplace at an individual, team and organisation level. They also have the commercial responsibility to align learning needs with the strategic ambitions and objectives of the business. They are agents for change, influencing key stakeholders, making decisions and recommendations on what the business can or should do in a learning and development context. They are also likely to lead on any learning and development-related elements of business projects. The Learning and Development Consultant Business Partner will often have expertise and competence in a specific field whether it be technical, vocational, or behavioural. They link the work they do to the context and strategic priorities of the business and measure the outcomes and impact of any learning interventions, to demonstrate a return on investment and expectation.

The role can be a generalist learning and development or more specialist, where the focus and in-depth expertise is in a specific area such as organisation development, digital and blended learning, resourcing, or talent management. Whichever the area of focus, the role requires a good grounding across all areas of learning and development, and is business and future focused.

The Learning and Development Consultant Business Partner role exists within a range of organisations including private, public and third sector. Typically, the individual works alongside colleagues who specialise in Human Resources (i.e. Employee Relations, Reward, Recruitment), often supported by a Learning and Development Administrator and/or Learning and Development Practitioner. They report to a senior Learning and Development Manager, Head of Department or Director. In larger organisations, they may be one of the team supporting the business, and may have responsibility for managing people and a budget.

Link to Professional Registration and Progression

The successful apprentice may be eligible to apply for Associate Membership of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD) or any other professional body that recognises this apprenticeship within its membership criteria (membership is subject to the professional bodies own membership requirements).

Work-Based Project Scope

Assessment Methods

This end-point assessment (EPA) consists of two assessment methods:

Work-Based Project with Professional Discussion

Presentation and Q&A

Assessment Order

The assessment process will be completed in the following order:

1. Work-Based Project with Professional Discussion
2. Presentation and Q&A

EPA Window

EPA will take a maximum of five months from the apprentice being accepted through gateway.

Work-Based Project with Professional Discussion

Work-Based Project

For this component of the assessment, the apprentice is required to complete a project in which they develop and implement a solution to a real business problem and submit a 5000-word (+/-10%) formal business report.

The apprentice will submit a work-based project scope at gateway. At the apprentice's assessment planning meeting, the End-Point Assessor will confirm whether the scope of the project encompasses all the KSBs assessed. If the apprentice's scope is not approved, they will have one week to resubmit.

Once the scope has been approved, the apprentice will have four months to complete work based project and write their report. The project will cover how the apprentice dealt with a significant issue facing the business/sector describing how they:

- analysed the problem. This should include demonstrating significant consulting with relevant business stakeholders to understand the requirements of the business/team
- conducted relevant background research, e.g. business requirements/implications, L&D/industry developments, and any regulatory requirements. This should include relevant data analysis and budgetary/resource considerations
- researched and developed options for potential solutions, giving reasoned explanations as to their inclusion or rejection
- collaborated and consulted with colleagues and the business in the development of the agreed solution
- developed the project plan with relevant solutions, looking for impacted populations and implementing change management actions as appropriate
- implemented the solution
- evaluated the solution against the agreed criteria from stakeholders
- evaluated for lessons learnt and factors to improve upon for next time

The project report should include evidence of how the project was delivered and the outcomes achieved. Evidence can be included as appendices, e.g. relevant emails, evaluation forms, evidence of return on investment/expectations, and client feedback.

Professional Discussion

The professional discussion will take place within four weeks of the apprentice's project submission date. The discussion will last 75 minutes (+/-10%). The End-Point Assessor will ask the apprentice 10-12 open questions to:

- check the apprentice's understanding of what was delivered in the project
- test any KSBs not evidenced within the project report, and
- give them the opportunity to reach all grade boundaries

The apprentice is permitted to bring the apprentice's project report into the assessment with them for reference.

Grading

This assessment is graded distinction, pass or fail according to the grading criteria.

To achieve a pass in this assessment, the apprentice must meet all the pass criteria. To be awarded a distinction, the apprentice must meet all the pass criteria and all the distinction criteria.

If the apprentice does not meet all the pass criteria, this assessment will be graded as a fail.

This may include an organisation's sustainability strategy or exposure to the UK Government's policy for net carbon zero emissions by 2050, for example, ensuring a just transition for those with legacy skills into the new green economy.
	Used Examples That Demonstrate an Understanding and Insight During the Discussion That Goes Beyond Their Role, Proactively Discusses and Demonstrates a Wider Understanding of the Challenges and Issues Facing Organisations in the Sector/Business and How Those Impact on Their Work
B7	They understand and apply the commercial context, realities and drivers behind learning needs and solutions. This may include an organisation's sustainability strategy or exposure to the UK Government's policy for net carbon zero emissions by 2050, for example, ensuring a just transition for those with legacy skills into the new green economy.

Learning Journal

Throughout the apprentice's apprenticeship programme, the apprentice is required to develop a learning journal.

They will make entries as learning events or activities take place, including but not limited to:

- attending a meeting
- designing learning
- delivering or attending training
- observing colleagues
- attending coaching sessions, and
- providing coaching sessions

They may also record feedback from others, such as emails, recordings, or written statements, in the apprentice's journal.

The apprentice's learning journal must include a regularly updated summary, such as a heat map, which shows their own assessment of the apprentice's starting point and progression towards meeting each of the knowledge, skills and behaviours (KSBs). A learning journal and heat map template in Excel format is available to download from EPAPro for this purpose.

In addition to reflection on the apprentice's own development journey, their learning journal must include reflection on the following three themes:

- new and emerging trends in the learning and development sector. For example, the apprentice may reflect on and give the apprentice's assessment of the way new technologies or delivery styles support training in their workplace
- learning and Development specialisms and their business impact. For example, they may consider how the apprentice has developed the apprentice's specialist skills, such as supporting and embedding a learning culture, facilitating social learning, how the apprentice has developed and use effective facilitation/questioning/debate, examined equality and diversity in learning policies, develop organisational plans (e.g. succession and talent planning), made decisions on learning delivery channels, or worked with suppliers
- leadership. For example, they may wish to include feedback from the apprentice's team/line reports on their leadership/management and reflect on how this may have developed or changed over time

The apprentice and the employer must also sign the declarations of authenticity on the learning journal cover sheet. Journals without a signed cover sheet will be rejected at gateway.

The training provider will submit the apprentice's learning journal, heat map and cover sheet at gateway.

The apprentice's learning journal will not be directly assessed. However, the apprentice is required to choose examples from their learning journal to use as the basis for their Presentation. The End-Point Assessor will also review the apprentice's journal to prepare for the presentation and Q&A.

Presentation and Q&A

Presentation

The apprentice's presentation must cover examples from their learning journal that best demonstrate the following three themes:

- new and emerging trends in the learning and development sector
- learning and development specialisms and their business impact, and
- leadership

These must be competency-based examples evidencing how they demonstrated the knowledge, skills and behaviours assigned to this assessment method, linked to relevant theories or models.

The apprentice is free to choose the format of their presentation. The End-Point Assessor will assess the content of the apprentice's presentation as well as their delivery style, clarity, and communication skills, according to the pass and distinction criteria.

Presentation must last 25 minutes (+/-10%).

Question and Answer Session

There will be a short break following the presentation to allow the End-Point Assessor to prepare questions. The question and answer session will last 35 minutes (+/-10%).

The apprentice will be asked five to seven base questions to:

- further explore the learning journal entries they included in the apprentice's presentation, and
- test the knowledge, skills and behaviours assigned to this assessment method

Apprentices may refer to the learning journal during the assessment.

Grading

This assessment is graded distinction, pass or fail according to the grading criteria.

To achieve a pass in this assessment, the apprentice must meet all the pass criteria. To be awarded a distinction, the apprentice must meet all the pass criteria and all the distinction criteria.

If the apprentice does not meet all the pass criteria, this assessment will be graded as a fail.

KSBs and Grading Criteria

Pass	The Presentation is Delivered to a 25-Minute (+/-10%) Time Frame.
	The Presentation is Structured Around Providing Competency Based Examples From the Learning Journal That Best Demonstrate How They Have Reflected on and Developed Their Own Practice in Each of the Key Themes:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● New and Emerging Trends and Developments in the L&D Sector (Their Example Might Look at K4, K19, K20, S8, B3) ● Specialist L&D (Their Example Might Look at K2, K3, K12, K18, S4, S6, S10, S17, S18, B1, B10) ● Leadership (Their Example Might Look at K13, K14, S7, S14, S16, S17, S20, B4, B6, B11, B12, B13, B14)
	The Presentation is Delivered Using Appropriate Media, Which Allows Clear Delivery of the Presentation's Points. The Apprentice Shows Competence in Their Delivery Style - for Example the Key Points From the Presentation Are Understood and Have Links to Ksbs.
	S16	Communicate confidently with people at all levels, including senior management.

Overall Grading

This standard is graded distinction, merit, pass or fail. Each assessment component is graded individually. Once the apprentice has completed all components, the grades are combined as described in the table below to determine the apprentice's overall grade.

Work-Based Project	Presentation with Q&A	Overall Grade
Pass	Pass	Pass
	Distinction
Distinction	Pass	Merit
	Distinction	Distinction

A fail in any assessment component will result in a fail overall.

Resits and Retakes

If the apprentice fails either of the assessment components, they will be eligible for a resit or retake. In such cases, the full range of grades will be available to them.

If the apprentice fails the work-based project and professional discussion, the apprentice will have two months from initial five-month EPA window to resubmit the apprentice's project and complete the professional discussion.

If the apprentice fails the presentation with Q&A, the apprentice will have two months from the original fail notification to resit or retake this assessment.

The employer will determine the number of attempts the apprentice is permitted to make.
